"Something to Chew On"

DR. DORTCH | SENIOR MINISTER | JULY 5, 2018

It's interesting to me how we often associate one part of life with another. For example, have you heard the expression, "That's something to chew on?" When a person makes that statement, he's not necessarily talking about consuming a food product... READ MORE

Welcome, Ben and Laura Beth (and Levi)!

On Sunday, July 1, MBBC was called into a Special Church Conference in both services to vote on the recommendation to bring Ben Winder on staff as our Minister to Students. Ben, his wife Laura Beth, and their son Levi will be relocating to Birmingham from Knoxville, Tennessee, where Ben serves as the Minister with Youth and Families at First Baptist Knoxville. Please pray for the Winders as they prepare to move and transition; Ben's first day on staff with us will be Monday, July 23.
