

Mountain Brook Baptist Church

Monthly Guide

“Where Did Summer Go?”

It may be a sign of my advancing age that the days seem to be passing far more frequently than I ever remember. But some of it could be that the summer break has shrunk from what it once was. The old schedule of three months has given way to 10 weeks so that it won't be long before teachers will be reporting and students will be gearing up for another semester. There's no use debating the pluses and minuses of the “abbreviated” summer break. It is what it is, another example of the inevitability of change.

What also cannot be debated is how our church needs to be gearing up for a new schedule of fall activities and opportunities. In particular, we'll resume our fall Wednesday schedule of Children's Missions and Music activities on August 22 and the church will hold a brief conference during both morning services on August 26 in order to approve Sunday Morning Bible Study teachers and Wednesday volunteers.

When I think back to my school days, I remember always feeling excited about getting back together with folk I only saw during the school year. The break from the routine was nice, but the prospect of new opportunities made leaving the summer behind seem not only more acceptable, but desirable.

We've had a great summer at MBBC. We've accomplished important ministry tasks and seen a good number of new faces come our way. But now is the time when we need to be gearing up for what a “new year” will bring.

I trust you got some rest over the last weeks and months, because when you look at the list of opportunities in this monthly guide, you'll surely see that there's much to look forward to. So, let this time be one of renewed commitment and preparation to take advantage of every activity to grow in your relationship with God and others. "Loving God and Living with Grace and Generosity" isn't just a seasonal emphasis, but one that we would do well to pursue every chance that comes our way.

Other Opportunities For This Summer

Items Needed for Service Day on October 6

One of our projects for the day will be creating small Christmas decorations using Christmas greenery and different decorations. If you have any Christmas greenery that you want to contribute, please bring it to the church for Pat Ferguson. We will also have an opportunity for you to learn how to crochet and make lap throws for our homebound members. If you have any old yarn that you want to contribute, bring it to Pat Ferguson.

Homebound Visitation Team Members Needed

If you have a free morning or afternoon, consider visiting one of our homebound members. This will enrich your life and bring joy to them. There are visitation bags and a homebound list under the master staircase in the church office. Pick up a bag and put your name by the name of the person you intend to visit. Let us know if the homebound member has a status change or needs anything from our church. Thank you for supporting this ministry.

Ice Cream Money for Grantswood's Children

Save Your Spare Change!

Children will be back in school soon, and the weather will definitely require an ice cream treat. Consider donating your change or any monies to the children at Grantswood Community School who are not blessed with the resources to buy ice cream at lunchtime. This is an easy way for you to help some child enjoy a special treat. Bring your money to church and designate them for the Grantswood ice cream fund.

Micah Rich

What led you to MBBC? Mommy and Daddy were MBBC members a long time ago. When our family moved back to Birmingham, we needed a new church home. Mrs. Sharon made sure I was welcome the very first time we visited. My parents never needed to visit anywhere else. They knew God was leading us here!

What have you enjoyed the most about MBBC? Vacation Bible School, the ELC, and my friends

Tell us about your faith. I became a Christian on Sunday, July 15, 2018 when I prayed with my parents! I believe that Jesus is the Son of God and that He died on the cross to pay the price for my sins.

Where were you born and raised? Tell us about your family. I was born in Lexington, South Carolina and moved to Birmingham when I was 2.5 years old. My Daddy is Matt, my Mommy is Sarah, and my dachshund's name is Tyson. My little sister is Abby; she is 3.5 years old.

Where do you go to school? I will be a first-grader at Hall-Kent Elementary in Homewood. I am six years old!

My hobbies and interests are ... drawing, playing with my Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle Legos, jumping on the trampoline, and playing with my sister and doggie.

My favorite restaurant is ... Chick-fil-A.

My favorite Bible verse is ... "Jesus dying on the cross" because I know Jesus did that for me!

Is there anything else you would like to share with the church? Thank you to Mrs. Sharon for all the kids' activities at church. Thank you to Ms. Jennifer Jordan for taking care of us on Wednesday nights. I love my MBBC church family!
