MBBC Funeral Preplanning Document

Death is an unavoidable part of life, yet it is often difficult to discuss or prepare for. Unless Christ returns first, each of us will one day face death, and so will those we love. One of the most meaningful ways to care for your family is by documenting your final wishes. By thoughtfully considering and recording your preferences now, you can ease the burden on your loved ones during a time of grief and provide guidance when important decisions must be made. This planning guide is designed to help you reflect on those choices and communicate your wishes with clarity and care.
