BUILDING ON OUR PAST, BELIEVING IN OUR FUTURE

When we look at the gospels, we see Jesus always calling people to join Him in a work that is beyond human comprehension. Nothing less befits service on behalf of a God for whom all things are possible (Matthew 19:26).

Mountain Brook Baptist Church has always approached its ministry in that spirit. Looking back at our congregation's past efforts at advancing God's kingdom purposes, we would have accomplished nothing if we had relied solely on our own power; but with God's help, we have achieved remarkable results for the cause of Christ.

Now, as we look to the future, another formidable challenge looms large. Our recent visioning process has led our congregation to adopt what we deemed a "God-sized dream" of making ministry possible. As we have reflected together on that dream's implications for our church's facilities, we have sensed God's direction toward what now seems an insurmountable goal of $12 million. But as we have seen God work wondrously in our midst in days past, we dare to believe that God will do so yet again.
